MEMORIAL DAY PROGRAM OUTLINED FOR ST. CLOUD

The Veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic are arranging for the observance of Memorial Day, May 30, 1923, in a befitting manner, in which all patriotic, fraternal and civic societies are earnestly invited to join and assist in the proper observance of this, "The Sabbath of our Nation," and make it truly a "Holy Day," instead of a holiday.

The Memorial Sermon on Sunday, May 27, will be delivered by Rev. H. Atchison, pastor of the Baptist church, in the G. A. R. Hall at 3 p. m.

On Wednesday morning, May 30th, the special ritualistic service will be conducted at Mount Peace Cemetery at 9:30 o'clock by L. L. Mitchell Post. Decoration will be in charge of the Womans Relief Corps assisted by the Daughters of Veterans and children. The decorating committee will leave the old hall for the cemetery promptly at 8 o'clock. Members of the G. A. R. will leave promptly at 9 o'clock.

At 10 o'clock the service for the Soldier and sailor dead will be observed at the pavilion on the Lake front.

HOW LONG WILL AMERICANS GOVERN AMERICA? LECTURE SUBJECT OF MAJ. BARNETT MAY 30TH

On the evening of Memorial Day, Wednesday, May 30th, Maj. A. E. Barnett will address the people of St. Cloud and vicinity, in the G. A. Hall at 7:30 p.m. on the broad question "How Long Will Americans Govern America?" This will be a free lecture, no admission being asked or collection taken.

This lecture is being given under the auspices of the Pilgrims, which has set forth to build the mightiest home defence league ever known. The Pilgrims embrace both men and women. It is Protestant American and today is the most powerful force for civic righteousness and national service any democracy has ever known. The purpose of the organization is to keep America American.

Every American citizen in this vicinity is invited to hear Major Barnett, one of America's most famous orators, next Wednesday evening, and from comments of his tour of the state, noted in the press, he has made a strong impression on the people in the interest of good government.

The enemies of Americanism and Protestantism, with unremitting determination and ceaseless activity, have long been secretly plotting to weaken and later to destroy our form of government, our belief in the Bible and our faith in God.

The antagonists of our American institutions and Christianity have invaded Florida with sufficient power to force the State Senate to disapprove of the reading of the Bible in public schools, and in the first legislative fight have been triumphant. The power that caused eight states to discard the Bible as an "objectionable" book, unfit to be read in the public schools, are active in Florida and unless the people of this state act now to counteract this attempt to strangle Protestantism in this commonwealth, the Bible will be declared "objectionable" and its reading in the public schools discarded altogether.

This issue is far more reaching than appears upon the surface. It is the most vital issue ever brought before civilized people as it deals with our faith in our Creator and our belief in the Scriptures.

MEMORIAL DAY RECOGNIZED AS BELONGING TO ALL WHO SERVED THE NATION

Memorial day is generally observed throughout the world this year, due in large part to the efforts of the American Legion, according to the following announcement made at Legion headquarters at Indianapolis:

"Originally designated by the Union veterans of the Civil War as a particular decoration day for their fallen comrades, May 30 gradually has become a day set apart in memory of all Americans who died for their country. Although it has long been the custom of many southern states to observe a memorial holiday of their own on April 26, the tendency to a uniform observance has been apparent since the World War. The Legion, composed of both the North and the South, officially adopted May 30 as its Memorial day and posts of the World War men on both sides of the Mason Dixon line have, for the last three years, simultaneously honored the dead of the Civil, Spanish-American and World wars.

May 30 International Holiday

"When the Interallied Veterans' federation, made up of World war veterans of France, England and Canada, Italy and others of the allied nations and of which the Legion is a member, adopted the Legion's date for the observance of rites for the dead, May 30 became an international holiday, comparable only in universal observance to Christmas. In the years to come it will be observed by Legion posts and allied veterans' organizations in the following countries other than the United States: Canada, Belgium, France, Poland, Turkey, Mexico, Argentina, Brazil, British Isles, Chile, China, Cuba, Guatemala, Japan, Peru, Porto Rico, Portugese, West Africa, Santo Domingo, Spanish Honduras, India, Venezuela and the Canal Zone, Hawaii, Philippine Islands and the territory of Alaska.

"As it did last year and the year before, the Legion will decorate and hold appropriate exercises over the grave of every American who sleeps on foreign soil, as well as thus honoring the graves of Americans and allied veterans who are buried in the cemeteries of this country. Legion posts in France, Belgium, Poland and Turkey will visit old battlefields and adjacent cemeteries.

Huge Task Completed

"The United States graves registration service has completed its huge task of returning to this country the bodies of 42,023 of the A. E. F. who died overseas, but 30,000 Americans still remain permanently buried in cemeteries of the allied nations.

"To finance the Memorial Day decoration of graves overseas, each of the Legions 11,000 posts was asked to subscribe an amount equal to five cents for each of its members. A central committee of the Legion in France will receive the funds from this country and have charge of decorating the individual graves.

"Several months before Memorial Day Hanford MacNider, national commander of the Legion, sent each post a request that exercises last year be made as personal as possible. 'With this end in view,' Mr. MacNider wrote, 'the Legion is ready to make special efforts to aid relatives and friends who think on Memorial day not so much of the whole army of the dead as they will of some one youth who went forth to fight and did not come back.'

All Veterans To Be Honored

"Gold star parents, desiring that especial attention be paid to the graves of their departed, requesting a certain type of floral decoration or religious ceremony, were asked to communicate their wishes to the organization's national headquarters, from which they were relayed to the legion post nearest the place of burial.

"The legion will not confine its exercises and decorations to the memory of World War heroes alone. The graves of all veterans of all American wars will be visited and decorated and fittingly honored. Last year the organization requested its posts and units of the Legion auxiliary to seek out, in each community, graves of all American soldier and sailor dead and to prepare charts showing where such graves were located and how they could be reached. The efforts of the World War men have resulted in a great many graves of Civil war veterans being rescued from obscurity and the graves of several veterans of 1812 long since forgotten, have been found and restored.

Bodies Abroad Cared For

"A similar plan of keeping a close and honored watch on graves of the Americans buried overseas has been evolved. There will be in France four principal cemeteries wherein men of the A. E. F. will sleep forever. At present a special fine arts commission is working on the project which will entail, for the collection of bodies and the beautification of cemeteries, an expenditure of more than $1,000,000. These fields of honor will be located at Belleau Wood, near Chateau-Thierry; Romy, near St. Quentin; Suresnes, near Paris, and Romagne, in the Argonne, near Montfaucon. More than 500 Americans will remain buried in England. A gift of land by the British government allows for the future decoration and care of these graves. Under plans already advanced a little cemetery for those Americans who died in England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales will be located at Brookwood, Surrey, England.

"This year still fewer of the proud white-haired old heroes of '61-'65 will bear their colors and their flowers to the sacred ground where their comrades are in eternal bivouac. Last year the thinning ranks were filled with sturdy, tanned youngsters in their army drab and navy blues who were honored to march at the side of the veterans patriarchs on their holy mission. The present Memorial day finds the hosts of Grant and Lee all but dissipated and as the youths of the World war strive for the honored files of the vanished procession, the day takes on a new significance."

A BIGGER AND BETTER ST. CLOUD

"A bigger and better St. Cloud,"
We are shouting this motto aloud
That the faithful old veterans may hear
They drafted the city with care
And raised the first building with prayer,
To them every project is dear.

"A bigger and better St. Cloud,"
This slogan is growing the rounds
No one is seeking the crown,
We will make it a wonder indeed
And never by grudging or greed
Will the hopes of the people be lost

"A bigger and better St. Cloud"
With high school and churches endowed,
With parks where the weary may rest,
Its city will move at our own,
Our team for the future has flown
St. Cloud will be classed with the best.

Dr. M. Puckett Foster has been secured to deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the graduation class of 1923 of the St. Cloud High School, which will be given at the Methodist Church on Sunday evening June 3, at eight o'clock. The subject of the sermon will be "Power." Mrs. Foster has been closely allied with school work in many ways and the sermon to the class of '23 will be both inspiring and instructive. The parents of the children and all their friends are cordially invited to be present.

W. C. T. U.

By A. RUTH ANNABLE

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Fentmore at her home, corner of 19th and Ohio avenue, May 22nd, at the usual hour. The president, Mrs. Smith was in charge.

In the absence of the regular secretary, Mrs. Kibbie was chosen to give thhe report of the last meeting, which was a picnic held in the city park. She also took the minutes of this meeting.

There were twenty-four present including three visitors, who bravely faced the heavy down-pour of rain to be there.

Mrs. Jennie Ward had charge of devotionals, reading the 5th chapter of Matthew. The subject for the hour was Child Welfare and the speaker, Mrs. Lee, not being present others gave short talks along this line.

Mrs. Greche and Mrs. Kibbe read original poems on how they earned a dollar for the W. C. T. U. work.

Eight ladies present each gave a dollar and will tell how they earned it later, either in rhyme or prose.

Mrs. Smith gave an instructive talk on Child Welfare, and short addresses by others followed.

Mrs. Howard led in an interesting manner about the Indian children of Oklahoma.

Mrs. Cox read a fine paper on the care of children.

Mrs. Lathrop read about the dangers incurred by the use of cigarettes and narcotics.

Mrs. Smith proposed that the Union send a letter to the Governor of the state commending those who have been so faithful in the work of putting down the convict system which has long been a disgrace to the fair state of Florida. It was voted that the secretary be instructed to write a letter to this effect and send at an early date.

Mrs. Kibbe read an article by Mrs. Grace Parker, State President of the Child Welfare Department, which was listened to with great attention.

The collection taken was $1.00.

After the meeting closed refreshments consisting of delicious ice cream and cake were served by the generous hostess and a social hour followed. Everyone had a good time even forgetful of the dark sky from which the rain continued to fall.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Clark, uncle and aunt of Mrs. M. P. Foster, who have been in the city for the past week on a visit, left Tuesday for a trip thru the northern states. They had spent some time in St. Petersburg this winter.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO HOLD ANNUAL ELECTION AND ORGANIZATION MEET JUNE 6

Members of the Chamber of Commerce are urged to attend the next two weekly meetings held in connection with the noon-day lunch each Wednesday, as the next meeting will be nomination day, and a week later will be conducted the annual election and reorganization of that body. June 6, remember, is the day of the election. Be there.

At the noon day lunch yesterday the attendance taxed the capacity of the long dining table, and a general discussion of many topics was had.

The advertising committee reported progress of the new booklet to be issued. While on the floor, Chairman Zimmerman urged that more business men be secured for the noon-day lunch and referred to work accomplished by the committee on securing the tourist auto camp grounds on the lakefront.

The Tampa Tribune came in for some discussion for lack of publicity given this city, and the secretary was instructed to write the paper about this matter.

The discussion on growing strawberries for next season brought out the fact that the growers in this part of the county were not entirely satisfied with the way the shipping business was handled last season, and also that it was contemplated to plant potatoes for next season as well as berries. Along this line Messrs Wilcox and Hood who operate Cypress Island farms were invited to attend the next meeting to advise with the members on crops that could be made to pay in this section.

It was decided that next Wednesday the lunch should take on the nature of a fish fry, A. S. McKay agreeing to furnish the fish.

It was also decided to send W. A. Arrowsmith to the meeting of secretaries to be held in Eustis on June 6 and 7.

The secretary was instrucsed to write the State Road Department calling attention to their delay in completing the East Coast through Osceola County as agreed upon.

WINTER VISITORS WANT TO HELP PLAYGROUND

When the announcement was made recently in the Tribune that public subscriptions would be secured to provide a fund for equipping the tourist playground at the city park, including the building of a pavilion, the attention was not especially called to winter visitors that this included their contributions, but many of our winter guests have responded with checks toward that fund. One received recently was from Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Peard, expressing their delight at the undertaking of the tourist committee of the Chamber of Commerce. This work is going rapidly forward, and when the thousands of winter visitors arrive next season they will be greeted with a new place to "play."

Mrs. W. H. Mann, representing the Senate Coffee Co., has agreed to serve free coffee at the Chamber of Commerce luncheons each week when she is in the city. She expects to be here every other week for the summer.

AMERICAN LEGION

ST. CLOUD POST NO. 65 — MEETING 2ND & 4TH THURSDAYS

Rinford MacNider, of Iowa, past national Commander of the American Legion, sailed on Saturday, May 12, on the S. S. Majestic for England, where he is to attend the annual convention of the British Legion as the representative on the Americana veterans organization. Mr. MacNider will carry an official message from the legion to the British association. The former legion leader has a deep interest in the extension of comradeship between the soldiers of allied armies, as it was during his administration that the first meeting of the Interallied Veterans Federation was conducted in the United States, simultaneously with that of the American Legion.

A tourist park and camping site, under the direction of American Legion men of Gettysburg, Pa., will be opened there this summer. The park project was originally in the hands of the city officials, but was turned over to the legionnaires on their request. The city will provide forestration for the site and plans an adequate water supply. Legionnaires are arranging to erect necessary buildings and facilities to care for the hundreds of tourists who visit Gettysburg during the year.

The original appropriation for the payment of compensation to soldiers of Michigan was exhausted, so the further sum of $1,500,000 was set aside by the legislature. Many of the claims which were not paid from the first appropriation were those which had been held up for verification of records, and certain of these will now be paid.

A memorial tablet for the men of Helena, Ark., who fell in the World War has been given by a group of local men to the American Legion post. The tablet is of bronze. Firing services marked the dedication of the memorial.

A campaign of Americanism among the immigrants and school children of Philadelphia has been undertaken by local posts of the American Legion. Each post will seek illiterates in the vicinity and will make arrangements for their education. Posts also are being urged to lead what aid they can to better conditions of immigrants. Dr. Ward Brinton, Legion Americanism chairman, has announced the formation of an Americanization council, including organizations representing all conditions and classes and will ask all posts to award at least one medal to a grammar school in Philadelphia.

More than fifty South Dakota posts of the American Legion have exceeded their 1922 membership, according to Legion department headquarters. The South Dakota department of the Legion stood in first place nationally on May 1, in the percentage of paid up memberships for state departments of 10,000 or above.

"How the American Legion Can Best Help New York City," will be the subject of an essay contest to be held under the direction of the Americanism committee of the New York County Legion organization. The contest will be open to five classes, as follows: All ex-service people residing in New York County; members of the legion belonging in New York County posts; students attending colleges; all high school, junior high school, parochial and continuation high school students, and pupils of the seventh and eighth grade public and parochial grammar schools. Medals will be awards.

Activities in preparation for the annual national convention of the American Legion, to be held in San Francisco, Oct. 15 to 19, are well under way. Major General Hunter Liggett, retired, who commanded the First American Army in France, has been appointed chairman of a committee of 500 prominent citizens who were named by Mayor James Rolph to take charge of all convention details. San Francisco is preparing to entertain 250,000 convention visitors.

The home for orphans of the World War to be established by the Kansas department of the American Legion will be under construction before June 1, according to W. P. MacLean, legion state commander. The Kansas men propose to lay the cornerstone of the first building on Memorial Day. The site for the home is on a 388-acre farm near Independence, which was tendered to the ex-service men's organization by a wealthy oil man whose two sons died as a result of war service.

The American Legion and organized labor have established the most friendly relations in Oregon. A recent bulletin issued from the Central Labor Council urged all eligible laboring men to become members of the legion. This position was taken by the council about three years ago and has been restated on a number of occasions. A few days ago the labor body voted to recommend that affiliated unions require their officers to provide the legion with a list of members who saw service in the World War.

Minnesota posts of the American Legion have each ordered from 20 to 500 trees from the state forestry department, to be planted along the highways leading to their respective towns. Ceremonies dedicating the trees to the memory of the soldier dead will be held Memorial Day. Trees will bear the names of comrades who died in the service.

Owsley Receives French Decoration

Alvin Owsley, national commander of the American Legion has been awarded the Order of Merit of the Union Nationale des Combattants, a French veteran's organization composed of more than a million ex-service men. The award was made to Commander Owsley as a public expression of the friendly feeling of French veterans for their comrades in the American Legion.

The Order of Merit had been previously awarded to only fifty men. It is in the form of a bronze medal, suspended from a bar with a ribbon of the French societies colors. Accompanying the medal, as a personal memento from Charles Bertrand, secretary of the French organization and also president of the Interallied Veterans Federation, was a bronze plaque indicating his unalterable affection for Commander Owsley and the American Legion.

To Assist Government Trained Men.

American Legion posts in all communities will assist ten thousand of World War veterans, now in training at government expense, to re-enter civil life within the next six months, according to Lemuel Bolles, national adjutant of the ex-service men's organization.

Employment agencies maintained by the legion posts will cooperate with many of the largest corporations and other employers with a view of obtaining work for the World War fighters which will be in conformity with the training they have undergone.

"When the government trainees return to their homes they will receive a hearty welcome from their comrades of the American Legion," Mr. Bolles stated. "Many of the men have been under government instruction for over three years and will need the assistance of the legion during that uncertain period when they are selecting their future vocations. It will require no extraordinary effort on the part of the Legion to shoulder this task. Our machinery exists in more than 11,000 posts and it can be placed in action immediately. We urge all vocational board men who have completed their training to establish contact with the nearest post of the American Legion."

Approximately one-tenth of those taking training are to be rehabilitated within the next six months, according to a recent announcement of Maj. Gen. Frank T. Hines, director of the United States Veterans Bureau.

Graves Endowment Fund Appeals

Contributions to the Graves Endowment Fund sought by the American Legion to provide permanent decoration for the graves of American World War dead in Europe, are being made with a sense of privilege. Those outside of the organization who have been permitted to add their money to that already received, regard participation as fulfillment of a duty to the memory of the heroic dead.

In Paris, France, where the campaign for funds has brought 100,000 francs, men in uniform guard the subscription booths in six American banks, in front of one of these booths recently, stood a sergeant of the U. S. Marines.

Senator Selden P. Spencer of Missouri, on a continental tour, walked up to the Marine. "Sonny, what's the idea?" he inquired. And the marine explained the reason for his being there.

The Missourian immediately offered a large contribution.

"I am delighted to aid such a splendid cause," he said. "It is indeed a most worthy one." Among other Americans in Europe who gave to this fund was G. Carter, formerly governor of Hawaii.

The fund raised by the American Legion in the United States with that of Continental Europe now totals over $40,000, with three weeks of the campaign yet to continue. It is confidently expected by national officers of the legion that the goal of $100,000 will be attained.

Pennsylvania is leading all states in contributions, with New York, Michigan, Kansas, Illinois, District of Columbia, and Minnesota closely following. The amount set for the District of Columbia has already been reached, legion members of that department being the first to complete their quota. Henry P. Spangler Post No. 12 was the first post of this department to reach the amount set. Continued contributions from the District of Columbia will serve to put the money obtained well over their original quota.

NEW INTERNAL REVENUE BULLETINS TO BE ISSUED

The following statement is issued by Collector of Internal Revenue D. T. Glerow, District of Florida.

As a material step in promoting cooperation between the Government and taxpayers, Commissioner of Internal Revenue David H. Blair has inaugurated a new program in the issuance of the Internal Revenue Bulletin, which [illegible] rulings on various tax and prohibitive questions. The Internal Revenue Bulletin now is issued weekly, presenting to taxpayers the latest rulings and opinions of the Attorney General, Solicitor of Internal Revenue and the Treasury Decisions, dealing with income, sales, capital stock, tobacco, oleomargarine and miscellaneous taxes. In addition the bulletins contain a great fund of information on tax and prohibition matters.

Supplementing the weekly bulletin, the Internal Revenue Bulletin Service consists of a quarterly digest, which will contain, briefed but retaining their full import, the rulings previously published in the weekly bulletins, and semi-annual cumulative bulletin in which will appear in full all new rulings, decisions, etc., published during the preceding six months. The semi-annual bulletins will be issued in July and January. The promptness with which tax information now is made available to the public will greatly enhance the value of the bulletin service. The weekly bulletin will be issued each Monday. To assure the widest and most expeditious distribution, Commissioner Blair has ordered that subscribers on the Pacific Coast and all points west of the Mississippi be given preference in the mailing of the bulletin.

The Internal Revenue Bulletin Service now has more than 20,000 subscribers, and under the new plan of Commissioner Blair it is expected the subscription list will be doubled.

Information concerning the service which is furnished on a subscription basis, may be obtained from the Bureau of Internal Revenue, or Superintendent of Public Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C.

WISCONSIN-MINNESOTA ASS'N MET MAY 17, GEORGE HOME

The Wisconsin-Minnesota Association met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. George on May 17th. On account of the rain the attendance was very small. The meeting opened by Mrs. Sayers, the president. Opening song, "America," followed with prayer by Rev. Z. H. Smith. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

Under the good of the order, Mrs. Z. H. Smith read an article on the death of John Brook, and other tragedies, that brought to the attention of the people a realization of great wrongs. The last, the sacrifice of Martin Tabert.

Motion was made and carried that the Association adjourned to meet the third Thursday in October, on account of so many members going to their northern homes. After a very pleasant visit the meeting adjourned.

PREPARATIONS FOR INCREASING PACKING HOUSE FACILITIES

Tampa, Fla. May 16.—In anticipation of a record volume of citrus fruit to be handled next season, preparations for the increasing and improvement of packing house facilities are already in evidence throughout the citrus belt of the state.

At least two new citrus packing houses have been contracted for by organizations affiliated with the Florida Citrus Exchange. The Crooked Lake Citrus Growers' Association is to build a six car per day house at Crooked Lake this summer. At Lakeland, the Lakeland Citrus Growers' Association has under construction a ten car per day house, which will be one of the finest in the state for its size.

Among those organizations which have made arrangements to add to their packing house equipment are the Winter Haven Citrus Growers' Association at Winter Haven, and the Silver Palm Citrus Growers' Association at Naranja.

ARRIVES SAFELY IN MICHIGAN

Editor St. Cloud Tribune:

Dear Mr. Johnson: [illegible] ago today I left St. Cloud for Michigan, the land of my birth, the land where snow just as soon blow in the middle of May, as in any winter month. But the month has been one of happy hours in meeting my many friends who have made my visit very pleasant to me. I wish to say my health has very much improved since I have been here, but I am looking forward to the near future when I shall return to St. Cloud again—the land of sunshine and flowers.

Yours very truly,
ELLA J. RAYMOND.

GRAPEFRUIT MOVEMENT IS DOUBLE THAT OF ORANGES

Tampa, May 16.—With the citrus shipping season rapidly drawing to a close, the daily grapefruit movement from the state is now practically double that of the orange movement, reports the Florida Citrus Exchange. An average of 140 cars of citrus fruit are being shipped from the state each day, almost 100 of which are of grapefruit. Shipments for the season, on May 14, had reached the new record figure of 40,500 cars. Of this amount 23,691 cars are oranges and 16,808 cars are grapefruit.

State of the Departed As Disclosed in the Book of Nature

By J. P. BLOOD

As Rev. Westover has kindly presented the facts gathered from the scriptures in a succinct manner, with reference to the "State of the Departed," I deem it proper that the facts disclosed in the Book of Nature upon that same subject might properly be presented to the public mind.

It is not my purpose to question the authenticity of the facts presented by Rev. Westover, for he has presented a true and clear statement of the matter contained in the Bible, nor to criticize any of those expressed conditions. But to simply state the facts as are determined by the disclosures of nature.

We simply start with the known conditions of the earth, and the planetary system of which it is a part.

The chemists tell us that our earth is made up of some ninety-two different substances, represented by atoms or chemical elements as they are called, and that by [illegible] with the physiologists, tell us that from these different elements, some sixteen of the said elements combine to form the body of man and the higher order of animals (the mammals).

Oxygen, hydrogen, nitrogen, carbon, calcium and phosphorus are the elements that supply the major portion of the matter comprising the system. The other ten elements exist in small quantities.

Oxygen and hydrogen compose the water, carbon, oxygen and nitrogen are the principal elements composing the tissues, while calcium and phosphorus in the construction of the bones.

The chemists tell us that all of these elements that combine in the making of the body [illegible] obtained from the products of the said earth, the vegetables, fruits and cereals, which products are derived from the inorganic matter, developed thru the action of the sun upon them, and thereby they become organic matter, conditioning the foods upon which man exists.

And when those products have matured and are not harvested, they soon decay and pass back to mother earth, as the said elements are distributed to the soil and exist in their former elemental condition.

Thus man and the higher order of animals are indirectly developed from the said inorganic matter, the earth's products being the medium agencies, that supply the system with the said chemical elements, and all the elements of the system are derived from the said products of the earth, and the system disintegrates the same as the products.

And we also know that the sperm cell of man and the higher order of animals, which is the incipient stage of their existence, is generated in the male parent from the foods that are developed from the said inorganic matter, and the future development of these cells by the female parent, is proved from the same variety of foods by the male parent, and after birth there are no further change of foods.

And when life is extinct, the body if exposed soon disintegrates the same as the food products upon which it existed, and the chemical elements pass back to mother earth.

Now, at what stage and from what source does the system obtain the so-claimed immortal spirit? The chemical elements have no active force save the force akin to them, and that force in the development of the vegetation can only be stimulated by the heat of the sun, or some other kindred extrinsic force.

Is it inhaled from the air after birth. If so, then all animals must have the same exposure, and should also have that said immortal spirit.

Certainly all animals of the higher order are on the same plane with mankind, as their process of gestation and development are the same. Their bodies are composed of the same chemical elements, and they are sustained by the same food elements, only derived in a different way and manner.

The Good Book classes man with animals as to body and spirit (Ecc. 3: 1-8, 19-20). All these conditions are known to have existed in nature ever since conditions have been recorded.

The Good Book also says that "the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living soul." Among the ancient Hebrews and Greeks, the word life and soul were synonymous, while the spirit is distinct from the term life or soul(the phrase should have read, "the breath of life") "living." (Gen. 2:7, 19) "and of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field," and He must have breathed into them the same breath of life, for it says that He drove them past Adam to be named. They must have had the same living conditions that man had and they are so compared in Ecc. 3: 18, 19, 20 cited above. "I said in my heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts. (18) For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no preeminence above a beast; for all is vanity. (20) All go into one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again."

The translators of the original text saw fit to construe the meaning of words as they deemed would express what they desired. They use the word Sheol for Hell, when they had need to dispose of the damned, and when they had saints, they put them in the grave (sheol); yet it is reported that Christ was resurrected out of Hell (Sheol) (Acts 2:31).

No animal body has ever been known to have been created, and developed in any other way than the present known conditions as herein stated. Why then should we say that there will be a resurrection of those bodies that have passed to the dust many centuries ago? It is not in keeping with Nature's Book, nor with the statements found in the Bible.

If there is a Spirit which passes out of the body where does it go?

To leave the body it must at all times be lighter than the air that surrounds it, and must be void of any tangible properties, or it could not so leave it, and pass out into space; so then it cannot attach itself to any other substance, and must therefore forever float.

It could not adhere to or follow the earth in its revolution, as its condition would be similar to that of the steam that escapes from the engine; remain at the place of exit.

If the wife dies at midnight her spirit goes up, and the husband at mid-night his spirit goes down; since the earth has a circumference of 25,000 miles, and revolves once in twenty-four hours, they would be some 125,000 miles apart thru that action; but the earth has a greater speed in passing around the sun, the distance traveled in a year, some 70,000,000 miles or some 17 miles per second, so by computing and adding, the spirit of each would be some 700,000 miles apart in the first instance, and in the second instance, if the wife dies the first of January and the Husband on the first of July, their distance apart would be the half of the said 270,000,000 miles.

When do you suppose the two would meet each other; and "would they know each other there?"

Is there any consolation in the reflection that such conditions afford a desirable haven of rest?

Such seems to be the conditions revealed in the Book of Nature as against the statements found in the Bible.

Can those conditions be harmonized? Not as long as the Theologians cling to the one and condemn the other.

It is reported that the Pope of Rome said: "the more disprove all the scientific statements adverse to the Bible that can be done, and what cannot be disproved, the Christian must disbelieve."

Is that the theistic sentiment embraced in Christianity which requires a denunciation of the visible works of the Great Artificer? Is not that bordering on defamation, and a sacrilegious example for the youth to follow?

Mayor L. M. Parker, Rev. Wm. Landiss and Rev. Munn forsook the busy life of the city last Monday to enjoy a day's fishing trip. We are sure that they had a nice time, but no fish stories have been transmitted to us from this source.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Philpott, and daughter, have returned to their home at Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., after spending a few days in St. Cloud. Frankie, Jr., will remain here for the summer and has accepted a position in Looper's Grocery.

The editor is in receipt of a newspaper from T. O. Holliday, at Freeport, O., telling about the damage by storm at that place. He added a note that there had been a good snow since he returned to Ohio from St. Cloud early in May.

The body of Col. Frances E. Boyd, who died at his home on New York avenue last week, was shipped to Washington, D. C., where it will be laid to rest in Arlington cemetery. The remains were prepared by Eiselstein Brothers.

Word has been received from the friends of Mr. J. Lewis Houston, of Beaver Falls, that their home had been blown away on May 15, during a terrific storm. Mr. Houston is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Houston, who were former residents of St. Cloud.

Mrs. E. J. Everett will leave for Kent, O., the latter part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McPherson will start north about June 6th for a visit with old friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. McKoy will leave about June 5 for a trip through northern states.

Mrs. Alta Manypenny left Wednesday for Erie Pennsylvania, via. Jacksonville, from there by boat to Baltimore and then to Erie, later going to her home at Melford, Mich., for the summer.

Mrs. A. H. Marskie left Tuesday for Chicago, Ills., and after a short visit with her daughter there, will go on to her home in Janesville, Wis., for the remainder of the summer. She hopes to be with us again in the fall.

Mrs. H. T. Hickman announces the closing of her restaurant at New York avenue and Twelfth street, and wishes to thank her many patrons for their liberal support. She wishes to state that she will open a dressmaking parlor in the same building and do general sewing for the public. 1tp

Workmen began the construction of the new bonthouse Monday, that covers the spot at the foot of Ohio avenue that was the scene of a very destructive fire a few weeks ago. Mr. McIntosh, the owner, let a contract for the new pavilion to P. E. Morgan and work is to be completed by July fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Garrison and granddaughter, of Brooklyn, N. Y. arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. DeGraw Tuesday for an extended visit. Mrs. Garrison is the youngest sister of Mr. DeGraw, while Mr. DeGraw is the oldest of the family of fifteen children. The Garrisons are going to look over this part of the state during the next few weeks.

Alonzo Barney passed away at his home on Maryland avenue last Monday evening after a long illness. The funeral was held at the G. A. R. hall Tuesday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock and the burial took place at Mt. Peace cemetery with Eiselstein Bros. in charge. Mr. Barney leaves a wife to mourn his loss as well as a host of friends.

New chairs for the Christian church have been ordered by that congregation, to replace the old seats which were damaged when the edifice caught fire a few weeks ago. The insurance only covered the building, so it was necessary for the congregation to make up a special fund to refurnish the church. This the various organizations of the church have been successful in doing.

Miss Ruth Mettinger, of the Maternal and Infant Hygiene department of the Bureau of Child Welfare, under the Federal government and State Board of Health, who was here for the baby clinic ten days ago, came back Monday for a visit with Red Cross Nurse Mrs. Sandy Adams, to check up on results of the clinics. She left for Palm Beach where she will be located for three or four weeks in child welfare work in that county.

During the hard rain last Thursday, little Theo. George had a narrow escape from death, when a Ford car he was driving south on Maryland avenue was struck by the eastbound train and demolished. The lad escaped unhurt. The heavy rain prevented either the boy driving the car or the train crew seeing the approaching crossing. The train went to the end of the line and returned to the city before they learned of the accident.

About June 1, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Cummings will leave for Kalamazoo, Mich., to spend the summer with old friends and relatives. Mr. Cummings was the pioneer celery grower in the state of Michigan, the first of the plant known in this country being grown in his garden near Kalamazoo. He relates that the folks all had to acquire a taste for celery, but the taste soon became popular with the result that Kalamazoo later was famous for its celery.

During the thunder storm of last Thursday the homes of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Carlin and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hight were all struck by lightning. Considerable damage was done to the Cummings home, but except for a severe shock to Mrs. Carlin, none of the occupants of the three houses suffered any ill effects of the occurrence. A horse belonging to Marshal Newton was killed in the pasture west of town. The rainfall for that afternoon was the heaviest for many months.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cowger will leave tomorrow for a motor trip to Tallahassee, Fla., where they will attend the commencement exercises at the Florida State College for Women, located at that place. Stott, an aunt, of Raleigh, N. C. After the exercises at the college all will return to St. Cloud for an extended stay. Mrs. Prentis was a former domestic science teacher in the St. Cloud school, but for the past year has been connected with the Lewis Hotel Training School at Washington, D. C.

PLUCK

Really, there's no such thing as "luck!"
'Tis just a word
Coined by some do-less chap that stuck
In the old rut made by the rack.
'Tis quite absurd
To say that all things come by chance.
We retrograde, or we advance,
Because there is no standing still.
The man that wins exerts his will
To consummate each well-made plan.
"Oh yes, that's just a lucky man,"
The slacker says.
But that's not true: the winner works,
And won't give in, and never shirks;
And that way pays.

The lazy fellow's rubber spine
Won't let him back
Against the stock of all his kind,
Or help him free his hands or mind
From loathsome muck;
But he will grout, and often swear,
"This world has never used me fair,
Nor have I ever had a show,
Or any chance at all you know,
My fate, alas, is all awry—
So I'll just quit; no use to try;
And I will chuck
The whole blamed thing into the scrap."
Bosh! Just observe: The winning chap
Has pluck and pluck.

W. FRANK KENNEY.

JUDGE PARKHILL ADDRESSES VETEANS AT SANFORD, FLA.

Judge C. H. Parkhill was selected by the Spanish-American war veterans to deliver the address at their annual reunion in Sanford Tuesday. The Sanford Herald made this kindly editorial comment: "Judge C. H. Parkhill made a fine impression upon his hearers yesterday when he addressed the Spanish war veterans. He made no mention of politics, but he made a fine talk on Americanism, shorn of all sectionalism, and he is certainly of gubernatorial size."

In its news columns the Herald printed this report of Judge Parkhill's speech:

"The speaker was introduced by Judge James Sharon of this city in a few well chosen remarks, describing Judge Parkhill as being a native Floridian in whom there were all the requisites of a citizen and statesman and the son of a pioneer who had accomplished much for the state of Florida.

"Judge Parkhill is a most pleasing as well as a most forceful speaker and for almost an hour he held his audience by not only a flow of beautiful language easily assimilated, but by the very force of his ability to endow his audience with the thoughts of patriotism and real Americanism that dominated his own personality. The speaker took up the subject of wars that this nation has fought and the reason for fighting and all thru his speech ran the thread of the great work accomplished by the Spanish war and the World war in reuniting this great country into one big undivided America with no sectional feeling since these wars terminated all fratricidal feeling engendered by the Civil war. It might be all right to indulge the old fellows who fought in that war and let them fight it over and over again among themselves, but not to wave the bloody shirt in public, since the majority of the boys who fought on the northern and the southern side were willing to forget it and bury all feeling, and here in Florida that spirit was dominant since the population of this state was made up of people from every part of the United States and they came to Florida because of the free and open spirit of comradeship exhibited by the people. One hundred million people of the United States today carry on the sentiment of '76 and the wishes of the revolutionary heroes that there be no space in this country where the people shall not rule. The principle of self determination, the principle of local self government will never die in America. The speaker called attention to the fact that after the Civil war southern men in the Florida legislature had a law passed that would prohibit this state from ever seceding from the union and he was proud of the fact since his father was in the Confederate army and a citizen of Florida and it was our heritage to consecrate ourselves to the task of living the life of the leaders of all the great wars from Washington to Pershing, and all these leaders were our leaders and they now belonged to no special part of the country.

"Peace hath her victories and there would be no more wars, since all the world seemed to be united on this point, and with the feeling that in Florida there was peace and plenty and all would be welcomed to the new land where the people from all sections can come to know and love one another. That the laws of the land could well be hung on the first two commandments of the Bible and we should all make an earnest effort to settle all problems on the single law of love and charity."—Tampa Times.
